

Why learn Spanish?

With over 400 million Spanish speakers worldwide, Spanish has never been more important for our children to learn.

With all the economic changes in the world, and the rise of Latin-American economics, schools are slowly changing their curriculum to reflect the need for Spanish speakers in the UK and abroad.

It's FUN!

The main reason to teach children Spanish is that it's fun! Most children have already been introduced to the Spanish language through cartoons such as Dora the Explorer, making it the most popular second language for children to learn!

J u n i o r Spanish

Children as young as one are learning to speak a second language with our new programme for nurseries.

One parent who's seen her son's bilingual skills blossom is Ollie's mum:

Ollie is only 21 months old—he can barely speak English, but already he is learning a second language in the nursery he attends.

"'Hola', 'Amarillo', 'azul; and 'buenas noches' trip off his tongue as easily as their English equivalents" says his mother, Shaneese, who is delighted with Ollie's progress and hopes he'll soon have an extensive Spanish vocabulary to match his burgeoning English one.

"I'm a typical parent, I'm simply keen to offer Ollie more opportunities and the pleasure that a second language can give him."
